

The Original Colonies and the Boston Tea Party

Faith Supplement

The Boston Tea Party: Faith,
Freedom, and the Fight for Rights

Memory Verse

2 Corinthians 12:9-10

Each time he said, "My grace is all you need. My power works best in weakness." So now I am glad to boast about my weaknesses, so that the power of Christ can work through me.

That's why I take pleasure in my weaknesses, and in the insults, hardships, persecutions, and troubles that I suffer for Christ.

For when I am weak, then I am strong.

Faith Facts

- God's grace is sufficient and covers any weakness or hardship we experience in this life with his perfect power in us.
- We don't have to have all the answers. Regardless of the circumstances we are in, God is our strength.
- When we feel unfairly treated or persecuted, we can rest easy knowing God is there to help us. His strength is made perfect in our weakness.

Boston Tea Party - Course 3

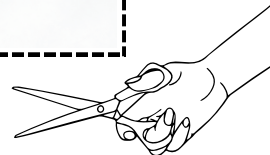

Memory Verse

2 Corinthians 12:9-10

Each time he said, "My grace is all you need. My power works best in weakness." So now I am glad to boast about my weaknesses, so that the power of Christ can work through me.

That's why I take pleasure in my weaknesses, and in the insults, hardships, persecutions, and troubles that I suffer for Christ.

For when I am weak, then I am strong.

2 Corinthians 12:9-10

Each time he said, "My grace is all you need. My power works best in weakness." So now I am glad to boast about my weaknesses, so that the power of Christ can work through me.

That's why I take pleasure in my weaknesses, and in the insults, hardships, persecutions, and troubles that I suffer for Christ.

For when I am weak, then I am strong.

2 Corinthians 12:9-10

Each time he said, "My grace is all you need. My power works best in weakness." So now I am glad to boast about my weaknesses, so that the power of Christ can work through me.

That's why I take pleasure in my weaknesses, and in the insults, hardships, persecutions, and troubles that I suffer for Christ. For when I am weak, then I am strong.

DRAW a picture of a moment when you felt you were treated unfairly.

WRITE a few words describing this moment and how you felt before, during, and after.

The form consists of a large grid for drawing and writing, enclosed in a blue border. On the right side of the grid, there is a black line drawing of a branch with several leaves. The grid is intended for a student to draw a picture of a moment when they felt treated unfairly and then write a few words describing that moment and how they felt before, during, and after.