2 Corinthians 12:9-10

Each time he said, "My grace is all you need. My power works best in weakness." So now I am glad to boast about my weaknesses, so that the power of Christ can work through me.

That's why I take pleasure in my weaknesses, and in the insults, hardships, persecutions, and troubles that I suffer for Christ.

For when I am weak, then I am strong.

Faith Facts

- God's grace is sufficient and covers any weakness or hardship we experience in this life with his perfect power in us.
- We don't have to have all the answers. Regardless of the circumstances we are in, God is our strength.
- When we feel unfairly treated or persecuted, we can rest easy knowing God is there to help us. His strength is made perfect in our weakness.
