

Discover America - Course 5 The American Revolution

Memory Verse

Micah 6:8

No, O people,

the Lord has told you what is good,

and this is what he requires of you:

to do what is right, to love mercy,

and to walk humbly with your God.

Faith Facts

- The message in Micah 6 was directed to the people of Judah, urging them to repent of their sins and return to God's ways.
- Micah 6:8 is part of a larger passage where the author challenges the people of Judah to live justly and righteously.
- Even though he lived a long time ago, what God said through Micah is still important for everyone today.
- Committing this verse to memory will help remind you to be good others, exercise fairness, and walk with God daily.

Learn More with Liberty:

Why Faith Matters: The American Revolution

Scan Me!

The American Revolution - Course 5

Memory Verse

Micah 6:8

No, O people,
the Lord has told you what is good,
and this is what he requires of you:
to do what is right, to love mercy,
and to walk humbly with your God.

Micah 6:8

No, O people,
the Lord has told you what is good,
and this is what he requires of you:
to do what is right, to love mercy,
and to walk humbly with your God.

Micah 6:8

"No, O people, the Lord has told you what is good, and this is what he requires of you: to do what is right, to love mercy, and to walk humbly with your God."

.....

DESCRIBE a time when you demonstrated fairness to someone in your life.

RECORD a few words describing this situation and what impact it had on this person.

A graphic of a spiral-bound notebook with lined pages. The notebook is light gray with a white spiral binding on the left side. The pages are white with blue horizontal lines and a red margin line on the left. The notebook is shown from a slightly elevated perspective, with a dark blue tab on the right side.