Introduction

TELL Students

Do you know who some of the bravest heroes are in America? They may not wear capes like superheroes in movies and comic books, but they still do amazing things! These heroes are the men and women who serve in our military.

The military are members of the six branches of the United States armed forces. The six groups that make up our military are: the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Coast Guard, Air Force, and Space Force. Each branch has special skills and serves a specific purpose to help keep our country safe and strong. Let's watch another episode of Star Spangled Adventures to learn more about our American heroes!

TELL Students

Did you know that American military heroes have protected our country for more than 200 years? They've faced challenges like fighting pirates, defeating enemies in wars, and even helping us fly in the air! Let's learn a little more about each branch of the United States military.

Army – Started in 1775, even before America became a country! Members of this branch fight on land in a variety of places, from snowy mountains to hot deserts.

Navy – Started in the fall of 1775. Men and women in the Navy are like heroes of the sea! They serve on big ships called aircraft carriers and have sailors who make sure everything runs smoothly.

Marine Corps – Began on November 10, 1775. These special members of the military are called Marines and fight on land and sea, just like amphibians! The Marines watch over open seas and help out other branches of the military when they need it.

Coast Guard – Officially started in 1915. Members of this branch are like guardian angels of the sea! They are known as Coasties. They watch over open seas and help rescue people who are stranded in the water.

Air Force – Began in the early 1900s. Members of the Air Force soar through the sky, protecting us from above. Their service members are called Airmen.

Space Force – The newest branch of the military started in 2019. Men and women in the Space Force are like heroes for outer space! Members are called Guardians and they protect systems and interests on earth and beyond.

TELL Students

In America, we have special days to honor the amazing people who keep us safe and protect our freedom. Two of the most important days are Memorial Day and Veterans Day. Memorial Day happens on the last Monday of May. We remember and thank the brave soldiers who gave their lives fighting for our country. Veterans Day is on November 11th. We honor all the living heroes who served in the military but didn't lose their lives in battle.

Did you know that since 1973, everyone who joins the military does it because they want to, not because they have to? They volunteer to protect us! A volunteer is someone who offers their time and effort to help others without being paid.

There are a few more days that we dedicate to celebrate our nation's heroes. On the third Saturday of May, we celebrate all the branches of the military together on Armed Forces Day. We even have a day on March 13th to appreciate our furry friends who serve in the military. K-9 Veterans Day was established in 1942 to honor military dogs who are trained to detect mines, send messages, and serve alongside members of the armed forces.

TELL Students

August 7th is National Purple Heart Day. On this day, we think about and thank the soldiers who got hurt while protecting us. On March 25th, we remember veterans who received the highest award for being heroes in combat. These heroes received the Medal of Honor. Over the last 160 years, only a few thousand people have ever received this honor.

TELL Students

Just like your favorite superheroes, our military heroes are strong, smart, and brave. They use their powers for good to keep us safe. So, the next time you see someone in uniform, remember they are a real life military hero. Thank them for their service and their willingness to face danger every day so we can be safe.

ASK Students

What are some ways we can honor and remember American heroes?
