

Discover America - Course 13

Underground Railroad

Memory Verses

Romans 5:3-4

We are full of joy even when we suffer. We know that our suffering gives us the strength to go on. The strength to go on produces character. Character produces hope.

James 1:12

Blessed is the man who remains steadfast under trial, for when he has stood the test he will receive the crown of life, which God has promised to those who love Him.

Faith Facts

- God created us to persevere through trials
- God encourages us to find joy in any situation
- It is God's desire that we find our strength in Him
- We can hold onto God's promises to help us remain strong

Underground Railroad - Course 13

Memory Verses

Romans 5:3-4

We are full of joy even when we suffer.
We know that our suffering gives us the strength to go on. The strength to go on produces character.

Character produces hope.

James 1:12

Blessed is the man who remains steadfast under trial, for when he has stood the test
he will receive the crown of life, which God has promised to those who love Him.

Underground Railroad

Romans 5:3-4

We are full of joy even when we suffer. We know that our suffering gives us the strength to go on.
The strength to go on produces character. Character produces hope.

James 1:12

"Blessed is the man who remains steadfast under trial, for when he has stood the test he will receive the crown of life, which God has promised to those who love Him."

Standing Strong

James 1:12 illustrates for us how believers like Harriet Tubman, who withstood great trials, were able to hold onto God's promises. Use the space provided to describe a recent time where you endured something difficult. Explain how God's promise in James 1:12 helped or will help you through this challenging time.

