Memory Verse

Assist students in finding the memory verse in their Bible. Facilitate a class discussion, ensuring student comprehension and connecting the verse to the historical lesson. Encourage students to discuss the verse with their families to continue learning.

Daniel 2:20-23 (NIV)

"And [Daniel] said: 'Praise be to the name of God for ever and ever; wisdom and power are his. He changes times and seasons; He deposes kings and raises up others. He gives wisdom to the wise and knowledge to the discerning. He reveals deep and hidden things; He knows what lies in darkness, and light dwells with him. I thank and praise you, God of my ancestors: You have given me wisdom and power, you have made known to me what we asked of you, you have made known to us the dream of the king.'"

Instructional Goals

- Students will understand that true wisdom and power come from God.
- Students will recognize the importance of seeking God's knowledge to foster creativity and overcome challenges.
- Students will explore how God's wisdom can help them grow, adapt, and make positive contributions to their community.
- Students will examine the story of Daniel and how he relied on God for guidance when advising the King of Babylon.

Memory Verse

Teacher Instructions: Please read the story of Daniel to your students from your Bible, or have students read it with a partner. Afterward, guide a discussion connecting Daniel's story to the historical lesson and its themes. Please have students cut out their Bible verse cards. Encourage them to take one home to practice and to share the other with a friend or neighbor as a way to help others learn the verse, too.

Daniel 2:23

"To Thee, O God of my fathers,
I give thanks and praise,
For Thou hast given wisdom and power."

Daniel 2:23

"To Thee, O God of my fathers,
I give thanks and praise,
For Thou hast given wisdom and power."
